

May 31, 2011

We got those boxes yesterday and today with the help of our operations department we got all the shoe boxes to the flight line and they are heading out to the most needy soldiers. The soldiers were very grateful and have assured us they will only go to the worst bases with the worst living conditions. They asked me to say a big "Thank you" Stuart and the rest of the guy's here...

Stuart Thorn

Afghanistan Engineer District - North